

Trauma Education

Attention Boscobel Area EMS Responders:

Join us for an evening of trauma education and fun at the 2008 SCRTAC Trauma Education Program, sponsored by Boscobel Area Health Care. Learn about current approaches to trauma patient management in this interactive, scenario based training session.

Continuing Education certificates will be provided.

All EMTs and 1st Responders are Welcome

Date: May 20th

Time: 1730–2030

RSVP BY May 17th:

Mary Sprosty
msprosty@boscobelhealth.com

(608) 375-6300

Managing the MVI

Learn how to provide the best possible outcome for your trauma patient, from triage and assessment, to treatment and transport.

Sign Up Now!

Dinner will be provided !

EMS WEEK
2008

Airway Management

Effective airway management is a must in trauma patient care. Learn how you can best manage your patient's airway in challenging situations.

Location:
*Boscobel Area Health Care
205 Parker St.
Boscobel, WI*

Trauma and Shock

The clock is ticking, and your patient may not have much time... How can you identify, predict, and manage the perils of shock?

www.scrtac.org

Head Injuries

Closed head injury patients present unique challenges for EMS, from assessment to management. Learn about new approaches to optimally manage CHI patients.